

COMMUNITY POLICING

WHAT IS IT?

DAVID COUPER WILL HELP US LEARN MORE!

David Couper was Chief of Police in Madison, Wisconsin for 21 years and was widely regarded as one of the most influential law enforcement officials in Wisconsin history. He transformed the department into one that emphasized community relations. He hired a large number of women and people of color dramatically changing the complexion of the Police Department. He then resigned to become an Episcopal Priest.

SCAN QR CODE TO REGISTER

WEDNESDAY
MARCH 25
6:00-8:00 PM

RPL NORDLOF
CENTER
118 N MAIN

OR

THURSDAY
MARCH 26
10:00 am-NOON

RPL NORDLOF
CENTER
118 N MAIN

YOU
AND YOUR FRIENDS ARE INVITED TO ATTEND
to learn more about community policing.